

My purpose is to plead with you not to modify or revise the Indiana Telephone Privacy program. We ask that you not honor the Consumer Bankers Association's request. We are very pleased with the current program. The state has exercised what some may label as State's Rights or Individuality. We wish it to remain as such. It is not by accident that we have a strong program. Please permit it to remain as such. Thank You!